Write-up about the Event

The Department of Costume Design and Fashion & Center for Rural Development Cell has organized an Extension Activity for Adopted Village on "Self -Employment Scope as Hand Embroiderer". Workshop on "HAND EMBROIDERY" for Kumarapalayam Village People, Coimbatore was organized on 04.03.2021. The Faculty M. Nandhini (Assistant Professor) and Dr.A.Sridevi (NSS,PO) taught Village People about the Hand Embroidery Stitches, chain stitch, stem stitch, bullion knot stitch, fly stitch, fishbone stitch, blanket stitch and satin stitch. The twenty-five Women of Village applied the taught designs in their Handkerchief. Ms. Nandhini oriented them on Scope of Hand Embroiderer. The Village People felt that the Workshop was very helpful.

Outcome of event:

The Village People have been provided with Self-employment & Entrepreneurial traits and Knowledge on the Scope of Hand Embroiderer.

Write-up about the Event (Max. 150 Words): Nehru Arts and Science College has passionately committed to social responsibility and increasingly responsive to community-based development initiatives. Our institution social commitment was recognised by Mahatma Gandhi National Council for Rural Education (MGNRE), Hyderabad, MHRD and awarded with the certificate of "Mentoring Institution". Presently we have recognised 14 institutions from different districts of Tamil Nadu and Kerala as our mentee institutions and planning series of event to mentor them for the social responsibilities. To begin with, one day National webinar on Mentoring for Social Responsibilities was organised to sensitize the faculties and NSS students of mentee institutions on social initiatives.

Dr.B.Anirudhan, Principal, NASC inaugurated and delivered the presidential address of the webinar. Ms. Sandhya, Resource person, MGNRE, MHRD guided the participants on institutional social responsibilities. Dr. S.D.Sivakumar, Regional Coordinator, and Dr.Balaji, Associate Coordinator, Unnat Bharath Abiyan, flagship programme of Ministry of Human Resource Development, mentor the participant institution on role of UBA in social revamping. About 256 participants were registered for the webinar. The programme was coordinated by Dr. A. Swarnalatha, Coordinator, UBA cell, NASC.
