The Student Induction Programme is organized every year for all the first UG students to familiarize them with Institutional Facilities, Culture, Policies, Rules and Regulations, Examination Pattern, Subject Gaps, Values and Ethics.

Entry Level Assessment

The Bridge Course is conducted for ten days for all the first-year UG students after admission and before starting the regular classes. The objective of conducting a Bridge Course is to assess and develop the Students' Communication Skills, Domain Knowledge, Competencies, Goals and Objectives. During the Bridge Course, Pre-test and Post-test are conducted to evaluate the different learning levels of entrants. The Marks/ Grade scored in the previous qualifying examination is also considered at the Primary Assessment

Internal Assessment

Mentor-Mentee system and Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) is adapted to enable the teachers to monitor and identify the learning capacity of the students as Fast / Medium and Slow learners. In the Mentor-Mentee system (with a ratio of 1:20), Mentors give personalized Counselling and guidance to motivate their Mentees and hand hold them till they pass out. In the CIA, the academic performance of each student is assessed.

Slow Learners

Remedial classes for the required Courses are offered.

Group learning/ Peer learning is practiced to enable students to discover deeper understanding in weak subjects.

Advanced learners are engaged to train slow learners in peer teaching.

Learning materials such as lecture notes, U Tube Videos, E-Contents and question papers are discussed and shared.

Advanced Learners:

NGI Scholarships for Toppers who earn 75 % and above marks in each semester.

They are advised to earn Extra Credits through Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs)/ Value Added Certificate Courses.

Participation and Presentation of Research Paper in National and International Academic Events.

Encourage them for Paper Publications, Funded Projects and Product Development.

Research Aptitude/Innovation are ignited through DBT Star Scheme, IEDC, NewGen IEDC Projects and mentored to establish Start-ups in NGI TBI.

Additional opportunities are extended as Members in Statutory Bodies, Students Academic Council, Student Ministry, IQAC etc.

Membership in various Professional Bodies.

Post Evaluation

The above strategies with a flow from Student Induction Programme to Peer Teaching enable the slow learners to transform and succeed in academics. This transformation of slow learners is evaluated and analysed after the end-semester examination.

Response:

An Examination Management System called COXCO is used for automation of Continuous Internal Assessment process and End Semester Examination process.

Reforms in the Examination Management System (EMS) through IT integration.

Students Data and Subject entries are made at the beginning of each semester

Examination Fee is paid online

Database of Examiners in the EMS supports for easy identification and access of Question Paper Setters, Examiners for Practical and Theory Examinations

Time Table, Hall Plan and Seating, Nominal Roll, Hall Tickets generation for every Examination Session is digitalized

After the completion of each CIA, marks are entered by the Course Teacher concerned, in the Examination Software using their unique login credentials

CIA II is conducted online through MOODLE as MCQ for 30 marks

Mark entry for various components of Internal Assessments are done in the Examination Software

After the mark entry, Consolidated Marks of CIA is generated through the software and verified with Students through HoD before the publication of results. This is to maintain the transparency in awarding Internal Assessment marks to the Students

Application for Revaluation, Re-totaling and obtaining photocopy of Answer Scripts are available online to support the Students

Calculation and Grading is automated through the Exam Software

IT based security features like encryption and random numbering are easily incorporated in the mark sheets

IT integration and Automation process have enabled the publication of results within 15 days from the last examination date

Examinations are planned based on the Regulations approved by the Academic Council

Continuous Internal Assessment Tests are conducted in a centralized fashion

From 2018, minimum pass mark in CIA was fixed for Practical Papers and attendance was included as a component for awarding marks in CIA

From 2021, minimum pass mark in CIA is fixed for both Theory and Practical Courses. Equal weightage is given to the CIA Tests and the Tools fixed by the Course Teachers in assessing the students of their Course

Academic Progress Meeting to analyze the performance of the Students in Continuous Internal Assessment is conducted after CIA Test II by all the Departments and the same is recorded

Rubrics for each Assessment Component to award marks, is maintained by the Course Teachers

Question Paper is prepared as per the Blooms Taxonomy levels using the Examiners other than the Parent University

End Semester Question Papers are scrutinized by the External Experts and the feedback about the Question Paper is given by the Course Teacher concerned, after the Examination

Examination Squad is allotted for Vigilance during CIA Tests and End Semester Examinations

Examination Vigilance Committee is formed for observation to restrict and monitor malpractices, if any during Examinations

Examination Appeal Committee shall enquire the Examination Grievances

Double Valuation System is adopted for PG Papers for End Semester Examinations

Supplementary Examination is conducted for final year students who have only one Backlog

External Examiners are used for the Assessment of both Theory and Practical Exams Dummy numbers are printed in the answer scripts and counter folio is removed before the valuation

Central Valuation is done for evaluating the Theory Papers where the Chairpersons of various boards scrutinize the valued Answer Scripts

After Valuation by External Examiners, the marks are entered in the Software by the Examiners and verified/ approved by the Chairpersons

Feedback is collected from the External Examiners during Question Paper setting, scrutinizing the Question Papers and during Central Valuation of Answer Scripts.

Mark Statements are provided with security features and photo identity

2.6 Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 Programme and course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website and communicated to teachers and students.

Response:

Programme Outcomes, Programme Specific Outcomes, and Course Outcomes of Various Programme offered by the College aim to achieve and nurture the institution's core belief, "Moulding True Citizens". They are also aligned with the institution's Vision of providing comprehensive education with an exceptional experience.

Communication to Teachers

IQAC in association with Curriculum Development Cell (CDC) conducts Faculty Development Programmes giving insights on OBE, OBE Framework, Blooms Taxonomy, Framing of Program Educational Objectives (PEO), Program Outcomes (PO), Program Specific Outcomes (PSO), Course Objectives, Course Outcomes (CO), Mapping and Assessment Methodology to verify the attainment level of the said outcomes. CDC was constituted to give guidance for formulating the outcomes. Collective efforts were positioned by the Principal, Deans, IQAC Director, Heads of the Departments, and the staff for stating the PEOs, POs, PSOs and COs as per the model sample given by NAAC for each programme offered by the institution. Each Course in a Programme is well defined with Course Objectives and Outcomes aligned with the Knowledge, Skill, and Attitude and with the overall PEOs, POs and PSOs. The CO, PO and PSO matrix for each Course is drawn/ followed in accordance with the requirements of OBE. This is followed by subsequent ratification by the Board of Studies, Academic Council and Governing Body of the institution. Orientation on NEP is being given from 2020 with a special focus on Skill Development and Entrepreneurship.

Communication to Students

POs, PSOs, PEOs are displayed on the College Website, after being vetted by External Experts. The same is displayed in the Departments. The COs are carefully prepared by the Course teachers and the breakdown of the course into sessions and instructional strategies are devised. This document is called

Course Handout and is discussed with the students by the teachers on the first day of the Course delivery and then uploaded on to the College ERP. It acts as a constant reminder of the stated outcomes for both the students and the teachers. Every time a Unit or Module or a Topic is started, the teacher discusses the objectives, the teaching methodology and the expected outcomes. So the students are clear about what is expected to learn, the purpose of its learning, the instructional methodology, the assignments/ tests/ quizzes, they are expected to take and finally the Learning Outcomes. The co and extra-curricular activities are planned as value addition and is a way to demonstrate the commitment to achieve the stated outcomes. Student Workload is also discussed and assigned during such discussions. Regular feedback from students also helps in course correction if any, in achieving the outcomes. Students are also provided with feedback by the Course Instructors with regard to their performance and are motivated to work for the attainment of the stated outcomes. In this way, the POs, the PSOs and COs are constantly reminded to students and teachers

2.6.2 Attainment of programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

Response:

Attainment of Course Outcomes (COs), and Programme Outcomes (POs) is evaluated by Internal and External methods. Internal evaluation is done by the faculty members, Head of the Departments, the internal members of the Board of Studies and the Academic Council. The external members of the Boards of Studies, the Academic Council and the College Committee examine the POs and COs and give suggestions for improvement. The CO of each course is correlated with knowledge levels K1 to K6 of Bloom's Taxonomy and assessment of students at various knowledge levels is directly linked with the COs.

Attainment of Programme Outcome and Course Outcome:

A correlation is established between COs and POs on a scale of 1 to 3, 1 (low), 2 (medium) and 3 (high).

A mapping matrix is prepared for every course in the programme including the elective subjects.

The COs are written and their mappings with POs are reviewed by a committee of senior faculty members before they are finalized.

Attainment of COs is evaluated on the basis of the performance of students in CIA and ESE.

Under direct mode of assessment, two internal tests and one model exam are conducted along with assignment, seminars, and quiz at different knowledge levels to cover the COs.

The laboratory courses are evaluated on the basis of experiments done and the submission of record of practical work and the ESE.

Projects are evaluated through three reviews and a viva-voce.

Rubrics are used in the evaluation process to measure the level of attainment of performance.

The threshold value is the minimum pass percentage for each CO in a subject.

The rubrics employed are given below:

Attainment level 1 (low): 50% of students score more than 50% marks out of the maximum relevant marks in a course.

Attainment level 2 (moderate): 60% of students score more than 50% marks out of the maximum relevant marks in a course.

Attainment level 3 (Strong): 70% of students score more than 50% marks out of the maximum relevant marks in a course.

Measurable and achievable Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes are framed. Adoption, implementation and success of Outcome Based Education depend on the attainment of the POs and COs

POs are adequately and appropriately addressed through the right selection of core courses, elective or advanced courses, laboratory courses, project work, internships, training, seminars and other curricular components

NASC, being an Autonomous Institution, provides complete autonomy to the teachers to adopt the best assessment tools for their respective courses with approval by the academic heads

IQAC periodically organizes interactive sessions with Student Academic Council members for deriving valuable and feasible suggestions and expectations regarding the programmes offered, course design, and teaching-learning methodologies adopted
